

Arts United Marketing Intern
Updated February 2017

Arts United is seeking a highly motivated intern who will provide assistance in the areas of marketing and graphic design. Our goal is to provide a meaningful learning experience in a professional non-profit work environment.

Primary responsibilities will include graphic design, communications, and website management. Areas of responsibility will include:

- Management of the Arts & Culture Forecast (a community wide events calendar and communication tool)
- Design and communication related to our Annual Fund Drive
- Design and communication related to the annual Taste of the Arts festival
- Other projects as assigned

The successful intern for Arts United will be a highly motivated student with expertise in graphic design and communications and an interest in working in a professional environment promoting arts and cultural activities in our community.

Interested applicants should email Jasmine Bejar at jbejar@artsunited.org to apply.
