

2023 PROGRAM OVERVIEW & GUIDELINES

Grant Program Administered by Arts United & Energized by NIPSCO and the NiSource Charitable Foundation

Community Connections: Southeast Arts Project Grants are intended to bring together residents in Southeast Fort Wayne to enhance a sense of pride in shared community spaces, strengthen relationships between members of the community, augment existing community development efforts and activities, and celebrate both the history and culture of residents by encouraging community participation in a unique artistic experience.

Grants will provide funding to support arts and culture projects and activities in Southeast Fort Wayne.

Possible projects include, but are not limited to:

- Annual Festivals
- Art, Dance, Music, or Theater Classes
- Cultural Celebrations
- Interactive Arts Experiences
- Public Art Projects

WHO CAN APPLY?

Eligible applicants must live or be physically located in the southeast quadrant of Fort Wayne. This area includes all neighborhoods within city limits that are east of Calhoun Street and south of the Maumee River. Resources and organizations located outside of the southeast quadrant can be involved with a project, but cannot apply on behalf of individuals or groups that reside in that area of the city.

Eligible applicants include:

- Art Collectives
- Businesses
- Churches
- Individuals
- Neighborhood Associations
- Nonprofit Organizations
- Schools

HOW MUCH FUNDING CAN BE REQUESTED?

Applicants may apply for a grant between $500-$5,000 to fund their project. Eligible expenses should directly relate to the arts and culture component of the project.

Possible expenses include, but are not limited to:

- Artist Fees
- Equipment Rentals
- Marketing Materials
- Materials & Supplies
- Space Rentals

Funds may not be used to support any of the following:

- Alcoholic beverages
- Lobbying activities
- Political causes or candidates
- Religious services

WHO CHOOSES WHICH PROJECTS RECEIVE FUNDING?

Arts United will recruit 50% or more of the grant review panel from individuals living and/or actively working in the southeast quadrant of Fort Wayne. This is to ensure that people living in Southeast Fort Wayne have a voice in what projects they want funded in their immediate neighborhoods. Interested in being a panelist? Email hclosson@artsunited.org for information.
